Get Ready for 2020!

- Enhance your skill set for advocacy and messaging—with elected officials, to pitch an article or Op-Ed, to speak out at public meetings, to pass local resolutions, and for effective use of social media.
- The training covers advocacy skills, in general, using nuclear weapons abolition work as the content area. Faculty includes Martin Fleck, Director of national PSR's Nuclear Weapons Abolition Program and David Combs, Union of Concerned Scientists Outreach Specialist.
- Training is free but you must pre-register prior to March 29 at <https://bit.ly/RegisterIowaCity>.
- For more information, email info@psriowa.org or phone 319-828-4789.
